A Growler of the Press.

If any one doubts that the Oregon Statesman is amiable, let them read it, and be convinced. Let them peruse its columns—however such a task may affect their nerves—and learn how just are the encomiums (over the left) that our California friends are so fond of according the Oregon press. The truth is, that most diseases are liable to become chronic, and the Statesman's peculiar kind of amiability is hereditary, and chronic beside. It was peevish when it was young. It no sooner got its teeth out than it began to bite. It no sooner got the use of its limbs than it began to thrash around and tread on unoffending corns. Irritability was therefore its just inheritance, and foul language came indigenously from its uncomfortable tongue, and we occasionally expect it to "spike" and cavort around, quite as unreasonable and untameable as any native born cayuse. Some late change must have come over the editorial quill. For several weeks it has been so "good" that some of its admirers almost knew it would take the first premium for good manners, at the State Fair; but its name is not in the list of prizes, or diplomas. It did not even receive a "ticket of merit" to take home to its ma, and its fit of spleen has come back as ever. We [illegible]

[illegible] While he was [illegible] Committee [illegible] relation to [illegible] amendment being renewed the third time, Mr. Thornton renewed his speech [illegible] the amendment [illegible] the bill, and while he might not vote [illegible] under any circumstance he wished, when it did pass, it should possess as few objectionable points as possible.

Mr. Moores [illegible] show how the usury law is constantly being violated by bankers in this State, in refusing legal tender notes.

Mr. McCormick spoke for a time on this usury matter.

Mr. Parker made some humorous allusions to the way those who are a little "sick" are attended to. As soon as a gentleman became a little bilious in his mind, the doctors flocked to him from all parts of the House to bring him around right for the bill again.

The amendment was lost. Several small amendments were adopted, and then the Committee rose and reported the bill back to the House, with recommendation that the amendments thereto be adopted.

Mr. Thornton moved to amend so that a tender of treasury notes may be made by the debtor any time before judgment. Also, "This act shall not contravene Act of Congress making treasury notes legal tender," &c. Both amendments were voted down, and on motion to have the bill read third time to-morrow, Mr. Thornton appealed to the magnanimity of the majority that they, the minority, be allowed to spread upon the journals other amendments they had to propose. They wanted to place the majority in a position he felt they would be glad to shrink from in two years. He would not permit himself to [illegible] his constituents. It would not be required of him. He went on with an impassioned appeal [illegible] traitors [illegible] array them before the bar of public opinion, &c.

Dr. Bowlby rose to reply, and was stopped both by the Speaker. He then moved the previous question, which carried. The motion to read third time to-morrow was put and carried.

H. B. No. 1, To incorporate City of Portland, was returned by the Senate, with amendment adopted by them on its final passage, which amendments were concurred in. As it now stands, the boundaries of Portland include all the Caruthers land claim, and are not otherwise changed. Some ward changes occur. I believe the immediate (first ward) limits [illegible] Washington street is now the north boundary of the middle ward, instead of Stark street.

SENATE. OCT. 7th, 1864.

Reports of standing committees were received.

S. B. No. 21, Relative to Indians and Halfbreeds running at large, was read the second time, ordered engrossed and read the third time to-morrow.

S. B. No. 34, To make allowances of money to Convicts on their discharge from the Penitentiary, was read the first time.

S. B. No. 35, To encourage good behavior in convicts confined in the Penitentiary, was read the first time.

S. B. No. 36, Relating to estates and descents, was read the first time. The rules were suspended [illegible]

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to October 6.

CINCINNATI, [illegible] General Heintzelman [illegible] command of the Northern Department of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan.

NEW YORK, Oct. [illegible] The Herald's City Point correspondent says, in the fight for the South side railroad [illegible] New York [illegible] Both the Times and World correspondents put the number at only a few hundred.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Oct. [illegible] It is reported [illegible] long since the 30th. In going over the battle fields, we found our dead entirely stripped of clothing, some horribly mutilated and several had been murdered after they were wounded.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6. Nothing special from the Army of the Potomac to-day. Our advance has been much strengthened. There is but little danger of the rebels attempting to dislodge us. Lee is too weak.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 4th.—On Saturday, Buford with a part of Forrest's command, including all his artillery, attacked Athens. After shelling two hours, demanded the surrender. Col. [illegible], of Seventy-third Indiana, refused. [illegible] Fears of attack on Columbia are unfounded. Forrest having gone in the direction of [illegible] He was below Mount Pleasant. Numerous guerrilla bands are near the city from four to eight miles out on the several roads.

Last week two or three Government and freight trains were captured, wagons disabled and drivers were carried off.

From Chattanooga, we have the report of a demand for the surrender of Dalton yesterday by a body of rebels claiming to be Forrest's force. No further particulars.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 2.—Forrest with 8,000 men was at Spring Hill yesterday. It is reported he designs to capture Columbia. Probably there was fighting there to-day. A train from Chattanooga reached here to-day without interruption.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. [illegible]—A band of guerrillas captured two up and bound freight trains last night [illegible] train, last night between Richland Station and Fountain Head, on the Nashville road. They burned the cars.

The following was received from Carter's Station, East Tennessee, on the 1st: We arrived here yesterday and found the enemy under Vaughn strongly entrenched on both sides of the river. Heavy cannonading and skirmishing occurred all the afternoon and until noon to-day. The enemy was driven out of the forts and fled toward Scotland. I will burn the bridge and destroy the railroad from this point to prevent the resources of East Tennessee from being sent to the support of the rebels.

(Signed) A. C. GILLEM.

Schofield has received information that Burbridge had captured the Salt Works near Abingdon with little resistance.

We take the following letter written by Dr. Bellows, to the Ladies' Sanitary Committee of Eugene City, from the State Journal:

DEAR LADIES:—I wrote acknowledging your bounty ten days ago. I have now the pleasure of acknowledging the actual receipt of the money, being in coin, $146.00; in legal tenders, 25.00, for which again receive my most grateful thanks. I sail Sept. 23, for home. God bless the friends of the soldier. Farewell. Truly yours,

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood, leaving it free from all Humors and Impurities, we assert with [illegible]

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. [illegible] FROM THE PLAINS.—The day is still [illegible] its number, and the number is still increasing. The American people continue their roaming, and like the dropping in the bucket, Oregon will soon be filled. The evidences are accumulating that our commonwealth is reaping rich rewards from this migration. The thousands who have traveled the dusty plains as did the Arabs of yore, are pitching their tents around them beneath the clear sky of Heaven, and lay them down upon the [illegible] soil of our beautiful valley thanking the Omnipotent that at length they have reached the termination of the weary pilgrimage. Had these people a realization of the situation before starting, [illegible] they would meet us with less surprise. Seemingly they did not expect to [illegible] a multitude as we have, who had preceded them, and their calculation was to find the primitive [illegible] more primitive than it is. But there is a chance for many a [illegible] even if our inhabitants do now eat brown sugar, it is well [illegible] for themselves what the world covets, [illegible] unexcelled in any clime. Not many years past the great West, known to New Englanders was [illegible] with the comfortless prairie schooner of the pioneers of Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, etc., etc., composed the van guard; the infant wave, ever since has rolled the human sea, and like the [illegible] we find them now climbing the craggy eastern slope of the Blue Mountains, filing in little [illegible] across the rich meadows from the Umatilla to the Willamette, and here they may find millions of acres to till and over the plow share and make for themselves homes and farms that will blossom like the rose. Providence them all, and as many more as may come. They may not all be able to find desirable spots to settle down upon immediately, but they will soon, and when they do, our word for it, they never care even wish to exchange their granaries, their barns, their folds, or their farms, for any left behind. Very many of the emigrants of 1864 have sought Oregon for a peaceful home, unharmed as we comparatively are by the stern realities of a bitter war, our quiet country has unusual attractions for them, and if it be true that a portion of these entertain the sentiments to breed discord and strife we pray their advocacy of such doctrines may be indefinitely postponed. We trust past experiences may prove to be their future guides.

THE FREIGHT OF THE STEAMSHIPS.—It has been repeatedly urged that of all the freight coming to Oregon by steamships, the great bulk is directly intended for points above the Willamette river, on the Columbia, and much is said about its coming to this city, out of a direct course. The fact is, not over two tons out of every ten, brought in vessels over the Columbia river bar, are consigned to parties in this way. During the two weeks past the boats of the O. S. N. Co. have carried from this city to the Cascades about 1440 tons of freight—an average of 103 tons daily—the character of which, as well as the bills of lading, shows largely a proportion of it is owned by our own merchants and products of this valley. During the same time we have had in port some ten sea going crafts, with an aggregate number of tons not less than 5,000. The amount of merchandise destined for points above this in the Willamette valley, is by no means meagre.

THE MISSION OF ARTS.—There is an exquisite, intrinsic merit of art; it hath a "eternal beauty," a Divine mission. 'Tis true, there is beauty and sublimity in nature—the leaping cataract, the gentle rivulet, the laughing cascade, are both grand and beautiful—yet, there is an ideal beauty in art that surpasses anything real in nature—sang the poet Keats. This is true beyond a doubt, and we consider it our incumbent duty to inform our already wide, and continually widening circle of lady friends that there are a number of these beautiful things on exhibition at the sewing machine agency of Mr. J. W. J. Pierson, corner of Front and Washington streets in this city. We venture to assert that no lady of refined taste will fail to be well paid by a look and examination of the rich embroidery he has there on exhibition. It has taken the two first premiums of the late State Fair.

GOLD DIGGINGS DISCOVERED IN THIS CITY.—The truth has been demonstrated at last that gold deposits do exist in the earth under the city of Portland. A shaft has been sunk to the depth of about one hundred feet, near College Hill, and gold prospects can be obtained in almost every panfull of the dirt. The diggings are not supposed to pay very well, however, and it is understood the sinking of the shaft will soon be abandoned, but it will furnish all the aqua necessary for family use, and be considered well enough for a Nation quite as good as common on the plains of Syria and Arabia.

FLEECED.—On Saturday night an elderly man went through for all he was worth in solid coin, and then also pawned his watch for more, which followed the first, in bucking at the royal Havana tiger. We understand he has long been a resident of Oregon, and should have known better. Such [illegible] pocket their losses with a grim [illegible], but there is little sympathy left for them by the community at large.

LARGE PEARS.—D. Fang Aly laid upon our table on Saturday last three Pears of mammoth growth, specimens of the products of a tree on the farm of G. W. Pullen, of Columbia Slough. We did intend to measure them and give the dimensions of each, but two of the three were "gobbled" up, [illegible] divided around among the crowd, before the event took place. The one remaining was found to be 13 by 14 inches in circumference, and weighs 2 pounds.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Geo. H. Williams returned to this city from the Dalles on Saturday evening, after having responded to an invitation of the citizens of that place to visit them, and address them upon the issues of the day. Moody's Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, on Friday evening, to listen to him, and the speech is reported to have been by all odds the ablest speech of the canvass.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT.—The Hebrew Day of Atonement, Yom Hakippur as the day is called, commenced at sunset last evening and will end this evening at the same time. There was service at the Synagogue in the evening, and will be to-day, appropriate to the occasion. The stores of this people will be closed until sunset this evening.

FROM WASHINGTON CITY.—Mr. Wm. T. Downs, who is on a visit to this Coast from the National Capital, on business connected with the Internal Revenue Department, is now in this city stopping at Arrigoni's. He has spent some little time in the observation of matters in California, and will now take a look at affairs in Oregon.

ANOTHER CHANGE.—The steamer New World is again laid up this morning, to give place for the steamer Wilson G. Hunt, which leaves for the Cascades with about 150 tons of freight for the upper Columbia. The steamer Julia will also make a trip to the Cascades to-day, for the accommodation of coming emigrants.

INSTALLATION.—Rev. R. Wylie was installed Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Corvallis on Saturday, Oct. 8th. Rev. R. Robe preached the sermon, and gave the charge to the Pastor. Rev. E. R. Geary delivered the charge to the people. The communion season was observed on Sabbath, the 9th.

"SOLDIER," VANCOUVER.—The poetical effusion we have taken so much time to copy and forward as an original, is too old. Besides, it is not adapted to this climate, etc. We presume you have preserved the original, we never return rejected MSS. unless called for.

The first effect of a bilious climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the Liver, thereby preventing the natural and free discharge of bile. All know the lurking nature of the poison that produces Fever and Ague, and its kindred diseases. A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the sides, are often the only symptoms to warn of impending danger. The operation of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is to counteract this malarial influence, by producing activity of the biliary organs, and a healthy discharge of bile from the system.

Guard against imitation! Be sure that you obtain Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue and you are safe. Sold everywhere. Sole Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The stomach is the fountain head of scores of disorders which infest the human system. Indigestion, bad enough per se, generates diarrhea, dysentery, faintness, vertigo, palpitation of the heart, general debility, &c. Get rid of it, then, at once, by going through a course of

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,

A palatable and refreshing preparation, which assuredly relieves all complaints of the stomach and its dependencies, as the sunshine melts the snow. A course of the medicine may not prove to be necessary. One bottle frequently accomplishes a complete cure.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. oc13daw

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

REDINGTON & CO., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the Summer season, the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane, it places this surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!
Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs McMurray & Co. claim to be the first firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.

The Love Cheat

She loved me, she said, [illegible]
She swore it a thousand times—
She treasured my letters like jewels,
And learned and repeated my rhymes.

And numberless [illegible] she gave me,
For kisses were [illegible] sweet;
And I thought her an angel from heaven,
While she was but a [illegible] cheat.

She robbed me of rest [illegible]
And gave me bright [illegible]
And now, by [illegible] side [illegible]
Her letters I [illegible] burn.

For loud are the marriage bells pealing,
The priest, too, is [illegible] the bride;
And she leans on the arm of [illegible],
Who was once my love and my pride.

Ah, well! let her live and be married,
Her letters I'll burn, and [illegible]
[illegible] better [illegible] such tokens,
And keep the heart healthy and free.

PROPHETIC WORDS.—The following extract contains the last words uttered by General Dix in the Senate of the United States, in a speech against the extension of slavery—words which have acquired additional gravity and force from the great contest which is now raging, and of which there were no particular symptoms at the period of their delivery:

Mr. President, two years ago, when I first addressed the Senate upon the subject, under the instructions of the State of New York, I said that, by no instrumentality of hers, should slavery be carried into any portion of this continent which is free. I repeat the declaration now—by no act, by acquiescence of hers, slavery shall be carried where it does not exist. I said at the same time, that in whatever manner this question should be settled, if it should be decided against her views of justice and right, her devotion to the Union and to her sister States should remain unshaken and unimpaired. Speaking in her name, and for the last time within these walls, I repeat this declaration, also. She does not believe in the possibility of disunion. I am thankful that her faith is also mine. My confidence is founded upon the disinterestedness of the great body of the people, who derive their subsistence from the soil, and whose attachment is strong in proportion to their close communion with it. They have incorporated with it the labor of their own hands. It has given them back health, wealth and strength—health to enjoy and strength to defend what they possess. In seasons of tranquility and peace, they are unseen; too often, perhaps, forgotten; but it is in their silent and sober toil that the public prosperity is wrought out. It is only in the hour of peril that they come forth from a thousand hills and valleys and plains to sustain with strong arms the country they have made prosperous. In them the Union will find its surest protectors. They are too virtuous and too independent to be corrupted. They are spread over too broad a surface for the work of seduction. It is in towns, public assemblies, where men are congregated, that the temper can with more assurance sit down, as of old, in the guise of friendship, and whisper into the unsuspecting or the willing ear the lesson of disobedience and treachery. From this danger the great body of the people are secure. And let us be assured that they will never permit the banner which floats over them at home, and carries their name to every sea, to be torn down, either by internal dissension or external violence. Such is my firm, my unalterable conviction. But, if I am mistaken in all this—if the spangled belt it bears aloft is destined to be broken up—then my prayer will be that the star which represents New York in the constellation of States may stand fixed until every other shall have fallen!

THE REBEL IDEA [illegible].—Grant's occupation of the Weldon road has shaken even the wonderful confidence in Southern success that has hitherto illuminated the columns of the Richmond Whig. It entitles a recent article on the subject "Grant's Late Success." In this article it declares that it is not disposed "to underrate Grant's success;" but it finds comfort in believing that this success has cost Grant dearly, though it is constrained to admit that "it has cost us dearly." Previous to this success it believed that its cause was in danger; but it now believes that Grant's achievement has saved the Confederacy, because it has put Grant's troops where they are exposed to very much malaria. It counts upon the fever and expects it to do more than the "customary incomplete victories" of Southern generals.

So early in the summer they expected the climate to use Grant all up; and his activity is to them quite incomprehensible. The Richmond Sentinel thinks Grant insane, and calls him a lunatic "who deals his blows wildly and on every side." He "betrays unmistakable signs of desperation," and so on for nearly a column. This must be very cold comfort for the despondent chivalry, especially as these lunatic blows are called by some other of the Southern papers Yankee "successes." One of Gen. Grant's little pieces of insanity, according to the Sentinel, is the detachment of "a small force to occupy and hold the Weldon road, where any sane man would have known they would be gobbled up." Well, then, why are they not gobbled up? On the 19th, on the 21st and on the 25th instants, rebel forces were ordered to "gobble up" that small force sent to occupy the Weldon road. In those three attempts the rebels lost 15,000 men at the very least. They "gobbled up," according to their own story, 3,000. Five for one is a trade that even the keenest Yankee might be satisfied with.

The Richmond Sentinel of August 24th calls the rebel repulse on the 21st, "our little reverse of Sunday." In the events of the week it finds some cause for satisfaction, but a far greater cause in the slow, silent lapse of time that wears out all things. The argument obviously is that time may wear out the Yankees. It is the only hope the South has. Here then, is one rampant Southern journal that no longer relies for Southern success upon the achievement of Southern armies.—Washington Correspondence Bulletin.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public:

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT,	THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER,	PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M. D.,	JAMES C. DUNN,
SAMUEL MAY,	Rev. THOS. WHITTEMORE.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes,

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 1st, 1859, page 76.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC.

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

200 BALES IN BARK CAMBRIDGE. For sale by [illegible] ALLEN & LEWIS.
Portland, October [illegible], 1864.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

Ozaukee(?), Wis., Sept. 15, 1864.
* * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—[illegible] nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.
C. A. FLAUTE.

South Warsaw, O., July 28, 1863.
* * * One young man, who had been sick and out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $300 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

Havemeyer Mansion, Fifty-Seventh Street,
New York, August 2, 1863.

Dr. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. C. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS.

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once refreshed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAIN IN URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are contrasted with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
